JOHN RAYMOND BARKER

JERBY WITH A "Y"

THREE PERFORMANCES ONLY AT THE DUPLEX
MAY 12, 14, & 19, 2007

John Raymond Barker returns to The Duplex (61 Christopher Street at 7th Ave) with his brand new one-man show, JERBY WITH A "Y" on May 12, 14, and 19th at 9:30PM. The show is a comic, bawdy, yet personal exploration through topics ranging from auditioning to love to sex to politics to family. The music wildly ranges from various musical theatre genres to pop, dance, and even rap. This show follows John's epic New York cabaret debut, JERBY: FULLY LOADED, which premiered at the Duplex in October 2005 and was remounted at Danny's in April 2006 and Sullivan's of Houston in July 2006.

The career of John Raymond Barker has never been dull whether it's having been cast as a singing phone sex girl in a bizarre update of Sir Gawain and the Green Knight or as a ghostly ventriloquist in the world premiere of the musical, What Ever Happened to Baby Jane? Additionally, survival jobs have been as thrilling and diverse as Broadway backstage doorman for Grey Gardens and Doubt to the Meow Mix mascot cat. John swings both ways, actor-wise, having been seen in The Devil's Disciple and A Flea In Her Ear at the Alley Theatre and Funny Girl and Grand Hotel at Theatre Under The Stars and the 5th Avenue Musical Theatre Co.

JERBY WITH A "Y" plays Saturdays, May 12 & 19 and Monday, May 14 at 9:30PM at The Duplex (61 Christopher Street at 7th Ave). Tickets are $15 ($10 for AEA and Students with valid card/ID) plus a 2 drink minimum. (212)255-5438
